Longer Bio:

Dr. Jennifer R. Levin, MFT, PhD, FT is a grief therapist, educator, consultant, and speaker specializing in traumatic grief. She is also a Fellow in Thanatology, recognized by the Association for Death Education and Counseling. She has over 25 years of experience in end of life care and grief and loss. Dr. Levin began her career in public health at UCLA and focused on the communication needs of individuals living with metastatic breast cancer and their oncologists before transitioning to the Director of Hospice of Pasadena. She returned to Pepperdine University in 2010 to complete her masters in clinical psychology, and now works with adolescents, teens, adults and families who are living with a life threatening illness or coping with grief and loss.

In addition to her clinical practice, Therapy Heals, Dr. Levin teaches university courses in psychology, health and wellness and provides grief consultation and trainings for local non-profits. She is a public speaker and educator on topics including: individual and family grief, how to cope and live with a terminal illness, and traumatic grief and post traumatic growth. She also supervises and trains associates in grief and loss and founded the San Gabriel Valley Grief Resource and Training Resource Center.

Dr. Levin developed From Grief to Growth, an online resource program for individuals who have experienced the sudden and unexpected death of a loved one. This platform was designed for people unable to pursue traditional in person, one-on-one therapy who are searching for a way to process, grieve, and begin healing on their own.

Dr. Levin works in conjunction with her trained therapy dog, Winnie, who provides love and comfort to those living with illness and loss.
